Southpaw Gets Revenge for Licking Administered by St. Louis Last Tuesday.

THE SCORE IS 4 TO 1

Nationals Capture Series Just Closed by Making It Three Wins Out of Four.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Southpaw Harry Harper was the "Come southpaw Harry harper was the Come-back Kid" yesterday, and atoned for his poor showing against the Browns on Tuesday by putting the skids under the boys from Missouri, 4 to 1, allowing them six hits and striking out nine. It was expected that Griff would work Walter Johnson, but the Old Fox changed

Walter Johnson, but the Old Fox changed his mind at the last minute, which is fine und dandy for us, as Sir Walter, with four days' rest, should be able to give a four days' rest, should be able to give a INDIANS WIN ANOTHER troit Tigers this afternoon.

Harper's pitching yesterday, all things considered, was gilt edged. He deserved a shut-out, and would have had it if George McBride had not inserted an error at a critical stage.

Opposed to Harper was Bill Park, one of Finder Jones' collegians. Park to see

Opposed to Harper was Bill Park, one of Fluider Jones' collegians. Park is an orthodox hurier, a big, husky chap with plenty of stuff, and outside of two innings was not batted hard.

There were many sensational fielding stunts and the combat was not lacking in thrills—no game is ever tame when Harper toes the slab, for "Moxie" is liable to go wild and get the blind staggers at any stage without the slightest warning. He had a good day yesterday and well deserved the victory.

Nationals Secried up of the series 3 to 1. Pennock, a left-hander, worked seven innings for the Red Sox and allowed two runs. Turner's double, an out, and Gardner's error accounted for the first. Turner's scratch hit, a bit batsman, a wild pitch and sacrifice fly allowed the other.

Gregg walked Graney in the eighth and a sacrifice, wild pitch and sacrifice fly allowed the Clevelander to score. A base on balls, balk and Agnew's single gave Boston their run. Score: Cleveland. AB HOAE Reston. Nationals Score Two.

The Griffmen jumped into an early lead, scoring two runs during the first inning. Morgan led off by drawing a base on balls. Foster flied to Marsans, but Milan slashed the ball past Sisler at a milea-minute clip, and although Miller set him-self for the flying sphere, it cluded him and rolled to the fence. This wallop and the attendant error scored Morgan and put Milan on third base. A minute later Milan drew a bad peg from Catcher Severeid, who threw to Deal to catch

Clyde napping, and when the ball sped into left field Milan scampered home. Park allowed but one hit, and the Nationals could do very little with his assortment of benders until the sixth when two more tallies skimmed across, through the medium of a quartet of safe swats, including a triple.

Milan opened the sixth with a single

Johnson to Face the Tigers In First Game of Series Today

Walter Johnson, "Speed King." and the Detroit Tigers with Ty Cobb in the line-up will be the attraction at National Park this afternoon—a sweet morsel for baseball fans to devour.

The Tigers reached town shortly before midnight, coming direct from Philadelphia. There was the usual air of confidence and plenty of the "old pep" among the Jennings tourists.

Jean Dubuc may be sent to the box for the Jennings crew, but it is more than likely that Cunningham or one of the other youngsters will toe the slab.
